LDAO Online Workshops

Workshops are self-paced online learning environments that do not have direct access to a moderator. Though workshops are not facilitated, LDAO would continue to be available to participants to answer questions and concerns in a timely manner.

For registration information please visit the LDAO website at:

<http://www.ldao.ca/courses>

All workshops are open for a three month period. Participants should commit themselves to completing the content with this timeframe.

In order to participate in any given workshop, participants must have:

- A valid email address
- Access to the internet for the time period in which your chosen workshop(s) will take place
- Confirmed registration
